

One of the reasons I signed up to be on the no call list was because we were getting an outrageous number of calls from banks wanting our business. I do not wish to be bothered by them as well as other solicitors.